Department of Community and Therapeutic Recreation
School of Health & Human Sciences
University of North Carolina at Greensboro

Faculty Meeting
Friday, January 10, 2014; 12:30 – 2:30 pm; TR Lab

AGENDA

1. Well•Spring College Fair Day
An update was provided by Kim Miller. Feb 25 proposal of InFocus at Wellspring, Candice Bruton proposal of a CTR 429 event at Wellspring.

2. Graduate Program (Schleien)
Graduate Program Proposed Curricular changes include a limit of 3 independent studies for Grads.
Summer 2014 Assistantships applications are due by Jan 13th and must be submitted to the Grad school by the 15th. The Graduate Dean Award (financial need based) are due March 7th for the 2014/15 AY.

3. Undergraduate Program
Faculty discussed the changes to CTR 511, which include making it a SI, WI class. Bruton will teach the newly designed course.

4. Elective Courses (Schleien)
CTR 102 data (Winter 2013); CTR 101 (Spring 2014); CTR 102 (Summer 2014-SERVE) : Sue Fitzsimmons

5. Marketing (Bedini)
The poster for Ferguson glass enclosed case will be designed. Dr. Schleien announced the 2014-15 graduate assistantships, Bedini discussed department strategies including promotion of departmental scholarships, including placing announcements on Blackboard.

6. Accreditation
Gladwell & Stone discussed needs for accreditation. Gladwell will contact the accreditation committee for more exact instructions of some of the requirements.

Upcoming Events include  February Faculty Meeting (Feb 3, 12:30-2:30 pm); CTR Group Advising
(March 20, 21); HHS Cares Health Fair (March 28); NCRPA-TR Conference (Mar 30-Apr 1); Lawther
Lecture (March 31); CTR Commencement (May 8).